CABINET GOSSIP. WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.-The Star says: "In Cabinet goodp Mr. Dingley is being spokes of with growing frequency for Secretary of the Navy. The prophets still hold the State Department open to Senstor Sherman and it is pretty generally accepted as among the most probable things that John Wanamaker will be Postmaster-General. If Sherman goes into the Cabinet, it is said to be likely that Mr. Mc-Kinley would take his place in the S-nate. It would be between McKinley and Fester with the chances favorable to the former. Under this arrangement it is thought that Butterworth would be Speaker of the House. The opinion is very often expresed that the Speakership will either Eatterworth or Cannon, of Rinois. There is much doubt expressed whethe Mr. McKinley would want the Speakership even if the Senate should not be opened to PEACEPUL INDIANS. Washington, Nov. 20,--Major-Genera Schoffold, in his annual report, says the past year has been one of peace among the Indians formerly so trouble some in the division of the Pacific, and that in the division of the Missouri, with the single exception of the suppression of disorder among the Crow Indians, the use of troops has been limited to the prevention of possible trouble with Indian tribes. The system of practice of the artillery with beavy sea coast guns has been stendily developed and is now adapted for the entire sea coast of the country. He believes the troops will be fully propared to handle effectively the weapons of modern construction and of the largest caliber as soon as such weapons can be made ready to be placed in their hands.

THE BAYTIAN REPUBLIC. Washington, Nov. 20 - The Department of State has received official confirmation of the reported condemnation and seizure by the Haytian prize court of the American steamer Haytian Republic. The condemnation was pronounced Friday, November 5. Saturday following the United States Minister protested against the proceedings, alleging that the prize court was illegally constituted, and appealed to a tigher court. He also advised the captain of the seized vessel to refuse to surrender the craft. The United States manof-war Boston arrived on the scene the same day to support the protest of the United States Minister.

MAJOR FARNSWORTH DEAD. WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.-Major Farmsworth, Inspector-General, died yesterday at Fortress Monroe. He was appointed to the army in July, 1864, as Captain and Assistant Quartermaster. He was in the Shenandoah Valley, and engaged in Sheridan's campaign. He was at Cumberland in June, 1865, and in Baltimore as Department Quartermaster until 1885. Up to the date of his appointment as Inspector-General in 1865, he was stationed in the department of Texas, and since that time he has been on duty in this city.

A HEMP CANDIDATE.

A Clerk Tells of His Employer's Scheme to Hurn His Store.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 20.-Morris Keller, a clothing dealer, was arrested yes-terday on a bench warrant on a charge of attempting to defraud his creditors. suit was brought by Samuel Lewis & Co., of New York, who had furnished Keller with goods. At the hearing P. J. Keenan, his clerk, told a remarkable story of a plot to burn the store for the $3,000 insurance, which, if it had been carried out, would have probably resulted in the loss of several lives. Keenan stated that Keller bought kerosene last Friday and ordered him to sprinkle the store and a number of cases of cotton batting with it. He was then to turn on the natural gas and apply the match to the kerosene. Keller left for Salem, O., and Keenan was ordered to telegraph him after the building had been burned. Instead of doing this Keenan notified the agent of Lewis & Son, after which be telegraphed Keller that every thing was all right. When Keller came back he was arrested for attempting to defraud his creditors. Keenan says if the plot had been carried out the lives of four persons living above the store would have been sacrificed, as it would have been almost impossible for them to escape. Eruption of the Skin Cared.

BRICKVILLE, OFFARIA, CANADA, } I have used BRANDRETA'S PILLS for the past fifteen years, and taink them the best cathartic and anti-billous remedy known. For some five years I suffered with an eruption of the skin that gave me great pain and anneyance. I tried different blood remedies, but, although gaining strength, the itching was unrelieved. I finally con-cluded to take a thorough course of BRANDmern's Pills. I took six each night for four nights, then five, four, three, two, lessening each time by one, and then for one onth took one every night, with the happy result that now my skin is perfectly clear and has been so ever since

The New York Ledger will continue to be The Great Family Paper. We aim to make a paper that every father and mother can leave on the family table with perfect freedom.

The Ledger will be unexceptionable in character and moral tone. Diligent and scrupulous judgment will be exercised in providing matter that will be both entertaining and instructing—that will elevate the mind and purify the heart.

In addition to the contributions from the above-named authors, we have more than a dozen continued stories by SYLVANUS COBB, Jr., and several original poems by the late JOHN G. SAXE, which have never been published. We shall print some of these stories and poems during the year; also some continued stories by Mrs. HARRIET LEWIS and Miss ELIZA A. DUPUY.

Our corps of contributors for the coming year is so large, and will embrace such a variety of talent, that every department will receive the particular attention of some one competent to do it ample and special justice.

The facts stated above warrant us, we think, in promising our readers a family paper for the year 1889 that will be sure to give satisfaction to the most To all persons who, during the months of November and December, send a full yearly subscription of $3.00 to the NEW YORK LEDGER, we will send the LEDGER free to the 1st of January, 1889, and then for a year from the 1st of January, 1889.
